

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

DIRECTV, Inc.

Plaintiff,

vs.

Roberto Perez

Defendant

) Case No.: 05-10098 DPW

)

)

)

)

)

)

)

)

ORDER OF
DEFAULT JUDGMENT

The Court, having considered the Plaintiff's Motion for Default Judgment and the accompanying documentation filed with said motion, finds that the Plaintiff is entitled to a Default Judgment as follows:

1. $ 10,000.00 in statutory damages pursuant to Title 47 U.S.C. § 605(e)(3)(C)(i)(II) or Title 18 U.S.C. § 2520(c)(2)(B)
2. Costs $ 211.15 pursuant to Title 18 U.S.C. § 2520(b)(3) and /or Title 47 U.S.C. § 605(e)(3)(B)(iii);
3. The issuance of a permanent injunction pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 605(e)(3)(B)(i) or 18 U.S.C. § 2520(b)(1). utilizing the following language or language of a similar nature:
"The Court hereby enjoins the Defendant, the Defendant's respective agents, servants, employees, and any person or entity controlled directly or indirectly by the Defendant or acting on the Defendant's behalf from the further modification and/or use of electronic equipment designed for the unauthorized interception of signal in violation of provisions of Title 47 and/or Title 18; and,
4. Post-Judgment interest running on the judgment pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 1961.
5. Attorney's fees of $ 850.00 pursuant to Title 18 U.S.C. § 2520(b)(3) and /or Title 47 U.S.C. § 605(e)(3)(B)(iii).

SO ORDERED.

Dated: April 23, 2005

William P. Wardlaw
United States District Court Judge